

If you hear these hoofbeats...

- Widened mediastinum on chest X-ray
- Influenza-like illness in summer months
- Pneumonia death in an otherwise healthy young adult
- Vesicular rash that starts on the face and extremities
- Hemorrhagic fever syndrome
- Descending, bilateral muscle paralysis with cranial nerve deficits
- Cluster of unusual, severe or unexplained illnesses
- Unexplained critical illness in an otherwise healthy young adult

...consider these zebras

- Anthrax
- Tularemia
- Plague
- Brucellosis
- Smallpox
- Viral hemorrhagic fever
- Botulism
- Other potential bioterrorism agents

Please report any suspicion of these diseases or syndromes immediately to the Minnesota Department of Health Infectious Disease Epidemiology, Prevention and Control Division

651-201-5414

or

1-877-676-5414

DEPARTMENT
OF HEALTH